Steps

What does the person (or group) typically experience?

Awareness & Discovery	Sign Up & Setup	Data Integration	Browse available tours	Visualization & Analysis	Start purchase of a tour	Insight Generation	Confirm payment & book tour	Sharing & Collaboration	Continuous Monitoring	Sharing & Collaboration	Sharing & Collaboration	Experience the tour	Leave the guide & group	Prompt for review	Writing & submitting review	appears in the user profile	Personalized recommendations	Personalized offers	Personalized suggestions
Most customers discover city tours as they are booking other Fairplane travel	A customer navigates to the city tours section of our website or app	The customer types a city, dates, and the number of people who will attend the tour to see what tours are available	The customer sees available tours for their dates, city, and number of people	After seeing a tour that interests them, the customer clicks or taps to view more. They see information about what and where the tour will cover, plus its price, time of day, and tour guide.	After deciding to go on this tour, they click the Purchase button	They fill out their contact and credit card information, then continue	They see a summary of what they are about to purchase, then they confirm and the tour is booked!	An email immediately sends to confirm their tour and provide details about where and when to meet their guide	One day before the tour begins, a reminder email is sent to all tour participants. The email emphasizes where and when to meet, and what to bring if applicable.	Using their own means of transportation, the customer makes their way to the tour location at the scheduled time.	Tour participants meet the guide and other people who have joined the same tour	The guide brings the group around the area, explaining things as they go. Typically this lasts about 3 hours.	The guide wraps up the tour and everyone heads their separate ways	One hour after the tour finishes, an email and in-app notification prompt the tour participant for a review	The tour participant writes a review and gives the tour a star-rating out of 5.	The completed tour appears on the "past experiences" area of a customer's profile with a few details on where the group went.	Participation in the tour informs our backend recommendation systems, which the customer may experience via better personalization	The customer receives an email 14 days after their tour with personalized recommendations for other tours	When a past tour participant books new travel with us, we show them personalized tour recommendations in their arrival city.

Interactions

What interactions do they have at each step along the way?

People: Who do they see or talk to?

Places: Where are they?

Things: What digital touchpoints or physical objects would they use?

				The tour guide makes first appearance at this point, although the customer doesn't interact with them yet.						The customer looks for the group or guide, often from a distance as they walk closer		Some tours include interactions with shopkeepers or restaurant staff (e.g. on a food-oriented tour)		Often takes place at the same place where the group met the guide, but not always	To some degree, this is communicating indirectly with the tour guide, who will see their review	If other users interact with this person, they will see these completed tours also
												Most common objects people interact with on tours are bikes, Segways, food, and beverages.	Depending on the tour participant and guide, tipping/cash may be involved

Goals & motivations

At each step, what is a person's primary goal or motivation? ("Help me..." or "Help me avoid...")

Help me get this flight or hotel booked	Help me have more fun or learn new things on my trip	Help me avoid seeing tours for the wrong dates, locations, or numbers of people	Help me see what they have to offer	Help me understand what this tour is all about	Help me commit to going on this tour	Help me get through this payment part without too much hassle	Help me feel confident that my purchase is finalized and tell me what to do next	Help me feel confident that my purchase is finalized and tell me what to do next	Help me make sure I don't forget about my tour so that I don't waste money or get disappointed	Help me feel confident about where to go and which one of these people is my guide	Help me feel good about my decision to go on this tour and to feel welcome	Help me make the most of my trip to this new place	Help me leave the tour with good feelings and no awkwardness	Help me spread the word about a great tour or provide watch-outs and feedback for one that was not so good	Help me see what I've done before	Help me see what I could be doing next	Help me see ways to enhance my new trip

Positive moments

What steps does a typical person find enjoyable, productive, fun, motivating, delightful, or exciting?

It's fun to look at options and imagine doing each experience	Tour photos, videos, and explanations are exciting to see	Excitement about the purchase ("Here we go!")	Current payment flow is very bare-bones and simple	We've heard from several people that the reminder emails were essential, especially if they booked way in advance	Our guides tend to be so good that people are reassured when they meet their guide	People love the tour itself, we have a 98% satisfaction rating	People generally leave tours feeling refreshed and inspired	People like looking back on their past trips	We think people like these recommendations because they have an extremely high engagement rate
	It's reassuring to read reviews written by past travelers

Negative moments

What steps does a typical person find frustrating, confusing, angering, costly, or time-consuming?

People sometimes forget to put in their dates or number of people, which leads them to discover tours they can't actually attend	Several people expressed "information overload" as they browse	People express a bit of fear of commitment at this step	Trepidation about the purchase ("I hope this will be worth it!")	People expressed awkwardness about finding their guide in a public place	Sometimes people are matched up with tour participants that they don't really like	People are unclear whether a tip is necessary, especially for non-Americans on an American tour	Customers report feeling review fatigue	People describe leaving a review as an arduous process
People feel peer pressure to tip a guide when someone else on the tour tips, leaving them feeling weird and bad if they don't	We have very low review rates (15% of people review experiences and tours)

Areas of opportunity

How might we make each step better? What ideas do we have? What have others suggested?

If you don't follow this path immediately after your booking, could we send a follow-up?	Could we automatically carry over the city from your booking? (e.g. via a cookie)	Make it easier to compare and shop for experiences without having to click on them	Provide a simpler summary to avoid information overload	How might we make our guides easily identifiable (via a distinctive hat or shirt color, for example)?	How might we make it clear that tipping is appreciated but not necessary?	Could we A/B test different language to see what changes response rates?	How might we progressively disclose the full review so that each step feels more simple?	How might we help people celebrate and remember things they've done in the past?
			Show highlights or common phrases from reviews, or Uber-style "great guide" badges?		How might we equip people to tip after the tour? (e.g. via Venmo or equivalent app)			How might we extend the personal connection to the guide long after the tour is over?

How might we totally eliminate this awkward moment?
